Heinrich Winzer George Hackenschmidt [def.] Heinrich Eberle - Eberle gave up the match and declared himself to be defeated because of illness. He was one of the top stars of the german wrestling scene. The audience was stunned and could not understand the decision. They called "fraud" „get my money back". Then riots broke out at the circus and the police had problems to restore order. Because this was not the first tumults the Police banned this tournament. All shows were cancelled and there was no placement in the heavyweight class. Hackenschmidt did not won his first world championship tournament in Hamburg as many sources are claimed.
